

SITUATION 4: LIFT

SETTING

TIC / GOLF ACTION

REFERENCE.

A silent office elevator. One man inside.

Stuck between floors. He rocks his shoulders.

Takes a slow, imaginary practice swing.

Suddenly, another colleague steps in as the doors half-open. Without thinking, the colleague steps behind him, gently adjusts his elbow...

then his wrist...holds it there a second too long.

The doors fully open. Three more colleagues outside.

Frozen. It looks... intimate. Too intimate.

No one speaks. The elevator dings.
